Opening the Door for Foster Youth

Of the 2,100 individuals who are chronically homeless in San Francisco, 19% spent time in our foster care system. As part of Tipping Point's $100M strategy to cut chronic homelessness in half, we are taking a close look at the connection between child welfare and homelessness. In this month's interview, Law + Policy Director Brian Blalock talks about his experience advocating for homeless youth, the current state of the foster care system, and where we go from here.
