

Investments to-Date

Beneficiary	Grant	Project Highlights and Needs Met (not exhaustive; for illustrative purposes only)
Phase 1 – Relief	$8,109,000	Support immediate needs of low-income communities impacted by fires; deliver funds quickly through trusted North Bay partners
Santa Rosa Community Health	$2,500,000	Exam rooms to temporarily replace Vista Clinic destroyed in fires, which served a majority of low-income clients
UndocuFund	$1,000,000	Operational and financial assistance to organization in support of immigrants impacted by fires
Catholic Charities Santa Rosa	$750,000	Case management, legal services and housing navigation support for low-income families
Redwood Credit Union Community Fund, Inc. as part of the North Bay Fire Relief Fund established by the Press Democrat	$750,000	Financial assistance for 3,000 students who lost a home, providing $500 each through $250 match
Redwood Empire Food Bank	$500,000	Food distribution efforts to support increased demand
On The Move	$450,000	Case management and housing navigation support for low-income young people and families
Mendocino Community Foundation	$400,000	Organizational infrastructure and case management for Mendocino County fire relief efforts
Salvation Army – Napa + Sonoma	$350,000	Case management for low-income individuals and families
Jewish Family and Children’s Services	$250,000	Disaster recovery case management, housing navigation support, direct financial assistance, mental health services and crisis counseling for low-income individuals and families
Napa Valley Community Foundation	$250,000	Increased investment in key organizations serving low-income communities: Bay Area Legal Aid, Cope Family Center, On The Move, Puertas Abiertas, and UpValley Family Centers
Sonoma County Community Foundation	$250,000	Increased investment in key organizations serving low-income communities: La Luz, Petaluma People Services Center, and Redwood Empire Food Bank
North Coast Opportunities	$200,000	Case management for low-income individuals and families in Lake County
Becoming Independent	$150,000	Client services for disabled target population, including employment and life skills coaching and training
Legal Aid of Sonoma County	$150,000	Legal services for low-income individuals and families impacted by fires in issues related to housing, employment, benefits, and consumer protection

Women's Recovery Services	$100,000	Support for organizational operations and ongoing program implementation
Nurse-Family Partnership (NFP) Sonoma County	$50,000	Financial assistance and counseling for low-income, first-time mothers
Gateway to College at Santa Rosa College	$9,000	Financial assistance and counseling for low-income community college students
Phase 2 – Recovery	$25,730,000	Focus on emerging needs resulting from fires: housing, employment and mental health
Catholic Charities Santa Rosa: Caritas Village	$5,000,000	52 new family shelter rooms and 137 new units of housing, and added capacity to serve double the number of homeless individuals
Burbank Housing: Journey's End	$2,500,000	Relocation funding and assistance to 44 displaced low-income residents that were living in the Journey's End mobile home park
Redwood Community Health Coalition	$2,000,000	Support for eight community health centers that incurred increased costs and damage during the fires, enabling continuous medical, dental, and mental health care for displaced low-income patients
Burbank Housing: Stoddard West	$1,500,000	Closing a financial gap left by rising building costs for development of 50 units allocated to low-income families in Napa
La Luz Center: Building Trades Training Pathway	$1,500,000	Construction trade training and job readiness programs for 380 low-income participants
La Luz Center: MicroLoan Program	$1,500,000	Investment in local businesses, with a goal of 50 new loans, and support to new and existing businesses through classes and mentoring
Santa Rosa Community Health	$1,500,000	Ongoing support of Vista Clinic temporary facilities to ensure low-income patients have access to care post-fires
Enterprise Community Loan Fund	$1,175,000	350-500 new units of affordable housing
Burbank Housing: Homes for Sonoma	$1,000,000	20 new units of temporary housing for low-income families
CTE Foundation: North Bay Construction Corps Program	$1,000,000	Training for 300 high school seniors to prepare them for entry-level construction jobs after high school
Sonoma Economic Development Board – Construction Training Center	$1,000,000	A new construction trades training center and training of at least 375 adults per year
Redwood Community Health Coalition	$850,000	Provided 7,200 low-income patients with psychotherapy visits
COTS	$700,000	Expansion to Santa Rosa to provide rapid re-housing services
Hanna Institute: International Trauma Center Partnership	$650,000	Evidence-based trauma recovery services for 2,400 people impacted by the fires
Conservation Corps North Bay	$500,000	Training for 100 low-income young people in building trades to assist with long-term recovery
Workforce Development Board of Solano County	$500,000	Occupational training and certifications for 200 low-wage workers in Solano County displaced by the fires

Healthcare Foundation Northern Sonoma County: Wildfire Survivor Mental Health Collaborative	$450,000	500 professionals are trained in Skills for Psychological Recovery, an evidence-based methodology for helping people cope with trauma post-disaster
10,000 Degrees	$255,000	32 low-income students impacted by the fires receive college support services
Community Action Partnership of Sonoma County	$250,000	Case management for 1,600 low-income families
Sonoma County Community Development Commission	$250,000	Capacity-building support to meet the increased demand for homeless and rental support services
Santa Rosa Community Health: Sonoma Resilience Collaborative	$250,000	1,875 low-income patients receive trauma support services
Sonoma Economic Development Board – Impact Loan Fund	$200,000	50 new loans over three years to small businesses, and creation and retention of 200 jobs
United Policyholders	$200,000	Funding for a dedicated Local Program Coordinator to provide insurance navigation including facilitation of 20 public workshops and eight legal clinics
Napa Valley Community Foundation	$200,000	25-40 Accessory Dwelling Units within 2-3 years for low-income renters and/or fire survivors
First Responders Resiliency, Inc.	$155,000	500 first responders impacted by the fires receive professional support to cope with increased stress and trauma
Operation Access	$150,000	Coordination of surgical and specialty care services for low-income patients from Sonoma and Napa counties
UpValley Family Centers	$150,000	Support services for 3,000 low-income immigrant families in Napa
Dovetail Learning’s ToolBox Program	$100,000	Professional development and curriculum training for staff to help students build social-emotional and resiliency skills in the wake of trauma
North Bay Organizing Project	$100,000	Training for young leaders from community organizations to support community recovery and response
Sonoma County Secure Families Fund	$100,000	Specialized legal services for immigrants and training for 30 local attorneys in immigration law
LIME Foundation: NextGen Academy	$100,000	100 young people trained in the construction trades to provide living wage jobs
Non-Profit Housing Association of Northern California	$100,000	Increased capacity for public education and local organizing in support of affordable housing
Clear Lake Senior Center	$50,000	Additional funding for shelter for the residents supporting senior citizen residents of the Clearlake region in Lake County
KRCB Public Television + Radio	$25,000	Communications about fire recovery to engage broad community participation
Santa Rosa Junior College	$25,000	Financial assistance for community college students who lost housing or were otherwise impacted by the fires

St. Dorothy's Rest	$25,000	Financial assistance for housing and feeding first responders during the fires and for those still working on fire recovery
Sonoma Family Meal	$25,000	200 vulnerable families impacted by the fires receive meals and food security support
Community Action Partnership	$25,000	15 residents improve their English skills by one grade level, thereby improving earning potential and filling critical workforce vacancies in region
ExtraFood	$20,000	Food and prepared meals to shelters during the fires and to meet continued needs of vulnerable populations
West County Community Services	$20,000	Support to serve the increased number and needs of vulnerable clients following the fires
Forget Me Not Children's Services	$15,000	Summer camp scholarships for 45 children impacted by the fires
KBBF	$15,000	Communications about fire recovery assistance and services for the Spanish-speaking community
Food for Thought	$10,000	Support for food bank to meet increased needs of vulnerable residents, including additional food and extended hours
Grand Total:	$33,885,000	